

How Has Protocol 7 of the Learned Elders of Zion "World-Wide Wars" Shaped Geopolitics?

Sixbert SANGWA • July 21, 2024

The Protocols of the Learned Elders of Zion, particularly Protocol 7 titled "World-Wide Wars," outlines a sinister plan by a secretive group aimed at global domination. This document suggests a strategy for destabilizing nations and manipulating global events to usher in an era controlled by dark forces, the Antichrist. Although the Protocols have been dismissed by conspirators, examining their contents can provide insight into historical influence of secretive power dynamics. In this brief article, we will delve into the provisions of Protocol 7, exploring its implications and how these strategies have evidently influenced geopolitics throughout history.

Intensification of Armaments and Police Forces

Protocol 7 begins by emphasizing the need to increase military and police power. The strategy aims to create a society where only the proletariat, a few loyal millionaires, police, and soldiers [devoted to the secretive group's interests] exist. "The intensification of armaments, the increase of police forces - are all essential for the completion of the aforementioned plans." This control over armaments and security forces is designed to maintain order and suppress any opposition.

Historically, the arms race during the Cold War, the militarization of police forces, and the rise of surveillance states reflect this strategy. In contemporary times, the development of advanced military technologies, the increased use of artificial intelligence in surveillance, and the expansion of cyber warfare capabilities are evidence of its ongoing implementation. Governments worldwide often employ heightened security measures, such as mass data collection and enhanced law enforcement tactics, to maintain control and suppress dissent. However, Proverbs 21:1 reminds us that ultimately, God's sovereignty prevails over human plans, regardless of their intentions.

Creating Ferments, Discords, and Hostility

The protocol 7 goes on by advocating for the creation of unrest and hostility among nations. By fostering conflicts, the secret group aims to keep countries in check and portray themselves as indispensable peacekeepers. The document states, "Throughout all Europe, and by means of relations with Europe, in other continents also, we must create ferments, discords and hostility. Therein we gain a double advantage." The implementation of this strategy is evident in the numerous wars, revolutions, and political upheavals throughout the 20th and 21st centuries. These events can be seen as manifestations of a deliberate effort to create instability and manipulate global dynamics. The manipulation of public opinion and the orchestration of conflicts have often served the interests of powerful elites. Events such as the World Wars, the Cold War, and various regional conflicts often involved significant behind-the-scenes maneuvering, reflecting the chaos intended to keep nations dependent on powerful arbitrators. In contemporary times, this strategy continues at a pace. The rise of cyber warfare, information manipulation through social media, and the use of economic sanctions are modern tools used to influence and destabilize nations. The ongoing conflicts in the Middle East, the tensions between major powers like the United States, China, and Russia, and the proliferation of proxy wars are current trends that align with the principles outlined in Protocol 7. The use of disinformation campaigns and the manipulation of public sentiment through fake news and propaganda further underscore the continued relevance of these tactics in shaping geopolitics today. Matthew 24:6-7 warns that these conflicts are inevitable and serve as signs of the end times.

Responding to Opposition with War

According to Protocol 7, any opposition to the group's plans should be met with war. If multiple nations resist collectively, a universal war should be initiated to suppress them. The protocol asserts, "We must be in a position to respond to every act of opposition by war with the neighbors of that country which dares to oppose us: but if these neighbors should also venture to stand collectively together against us, then we must offer resistance by a universal war." The world wars of the 20th century, as well as more recent conflicts, can be interpreted as attempts to maintain global control and suppress opposition. The idea of perpetual warfare ensures that no nation can rise independently against the orchestrators' plans. The strategy of maintaining constant states of tension and conflict helps them in controlling populations and ensuring a constant state of dependency and fear.

Secrecy and Deception in Diplomacy

The protocol 7 emphasizes the importance of secrecy in political actions and the use of deception in diplomacy. The group's true intentions are hidden behind a facade of honesty and complacency. It states, "The principal factor of success in the political is the secrecy of its undertakings: the word should not agree with the deeds of the diplomat." Secret treaties, covert operations, and deceptive diplomatic practices have been a hallmark of international relations. The use of propaganda and misinformation continues to shape public perception and government actions. However, Luke 12:2-3 warns that "whatever has been said in the dark shall be heard in the light," underscoring the eventual revelation of all hidden deeds as evidence of God's justice.

Manipulation of Public Opinion through the Press

Lastly, Protocol 7 highlights the use of the press to shape public opinion in favor of the group's plans. By controlling the media, the group can influence governments and direct public sentiment. The protocol states:

"We must compel the governments of the GOYIM to take action in the direction favored by our widely conceived plan, already approaching the desired consummation, by what we shall represent as public opinion, secretly promoted by us through the means of that so-called 'Great Power' - THE PRESS, WHICH, WITH A FEW EXCEPTIONS THAT MAY BE DISREGARDED, IS ALREADY ENTIRELY IN OUR HANDS."

As seen today, the media's role in shaping public opinion has been profound. From the yellow journalism of the early 20th century to modern-day social media manipulation, controlling the narrative has been crucial for those in power. As per Philippians 4:8, Christians are advised to discern truth and reject deceitful narratives, lest they fall into the current sinister deceptions of the world.

Concluding Thoughts

The strategies outlined in Protocol 7 reflect the manipulation and control of the world by hidden powers serving the interests of a small elite group. Historically, the implementation of these tactics has led to widespread conflict, unrest, and the consolidation of power by a few. These inevitable wars are signs of our Lord's return, reminding Christians that the rapture is closer than ever. As the devil continues to orchestrate catastrophes, making life difficult, our hope lies only in Christ. All who wish to live eternally should hide their lives in Christ Jesus. As believers, we must remain vigilant and discerning. Philippians 1:9-10 says, "And this is my prayer: that your love may abound more and more in knowledge and depth of insight, so that you may be able to discern what is best and may be pure and blameless for the day of Christ." Understanding these strategies in Protocol 7 helps us navigate the challenges of our time, holding fast to the truth and hope found in Christ. Ephesians 6:12 reminds us of this spiritual battle: "For our struggle is not against flesh and blood, but against the rulers, against the authorities, against the powers of this dark world and against the spiritual forces of evil in the heavenly realms." By discerning the signs of the times and standing firm in faith, we can overcome the deceptions and difficulties orchestrated by the enemy. As Matthew 24:6-8 warns, "You will hear of wars and rumors of wars, but see to it that you are not alarmed. Such things must happen, but the end is still to come. Nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. There will be famines and earthquakes in various places. All these are the beginning of birth pains." Let us hold fast to the hope and eternal life found in Christ Jesus.
